This on Wheels, operated by a boy of 14 years of age, who rides at that. Is adapted to ROUGH as well assmooth ground, and will pay for itself in gleaning from 3 to it acros of wheat stubble. Price 220. Wakefield's Hand Corn Planter. Mr. T. P. GALLOP, Esq. - This is to certify that I have used Wakefield's Hand Corn Planter this present used Wakefield's finint Corn Planter this present spring, to put in 30 to 40 acres of corn; and I can say (consciontiously) that it supersedes my thing for planting corn I have ever soon, for that purpose. I have planted from five to six acres per day, in checks 3½ feet each way, with more case than I can plant one acre with the hoe and drop for myself; and I would further state I put in an acre in one hour by putting on full stora. I consider it a great acquisition to the farming interest.

P. S. -The graund must be well prepared for corn, in order for it to work right. ASA bits. HULUIT.
